Meow! Meow! Poki is looking for a place to sleep.

That cardboard box looks comfortable. Can Poki sleep there?

Ugh, that box is full already.

"There is no room in here," says one of the cats.

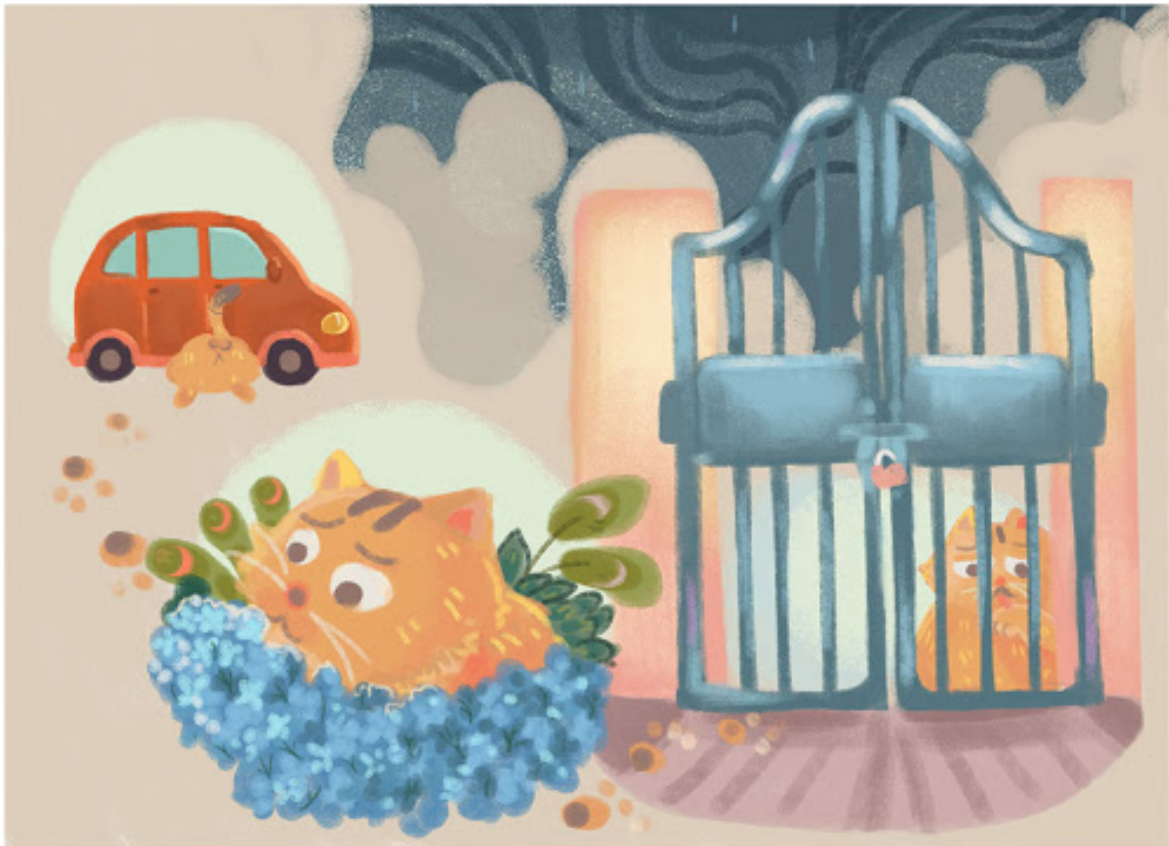

Now Poki has to find another place. There's a trash can next to the box.

"Meow! Meow! Can I sleep here?"

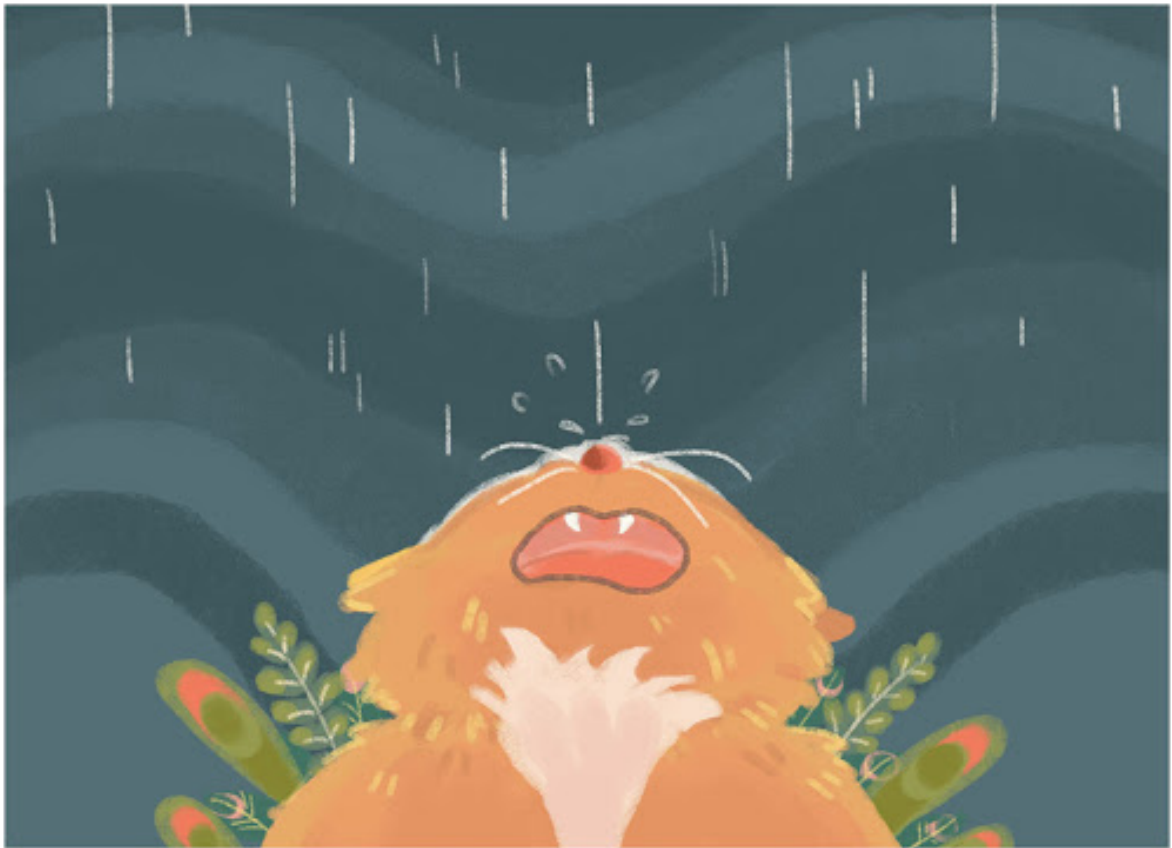

"There is no place for you here. It's already packed," says the cat in the bin.
Where should Poki go now?

Poki walks away. The wind blows harder. The sky is getting darker.

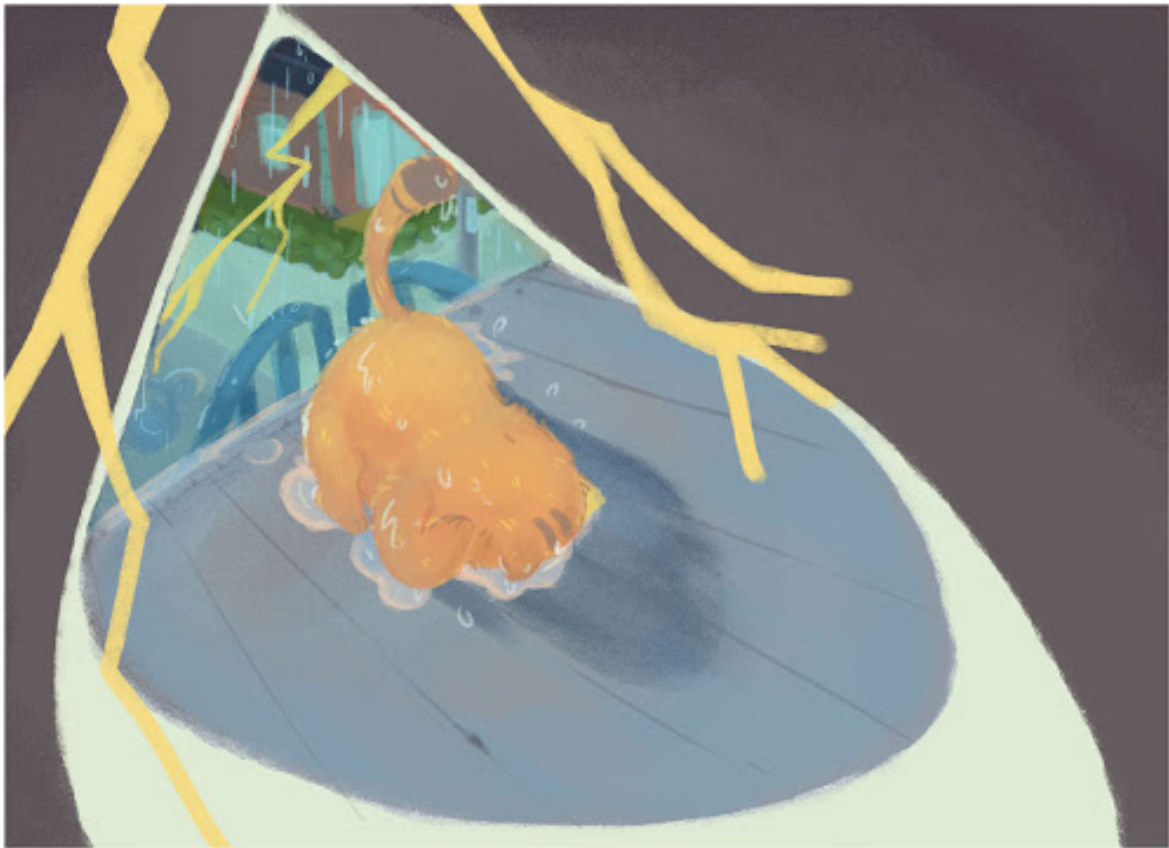

Poki feels cold. The cars blare loudly, hurting his ears.

Oh, now it is raining very hard. Poki has to find a place to sleep!

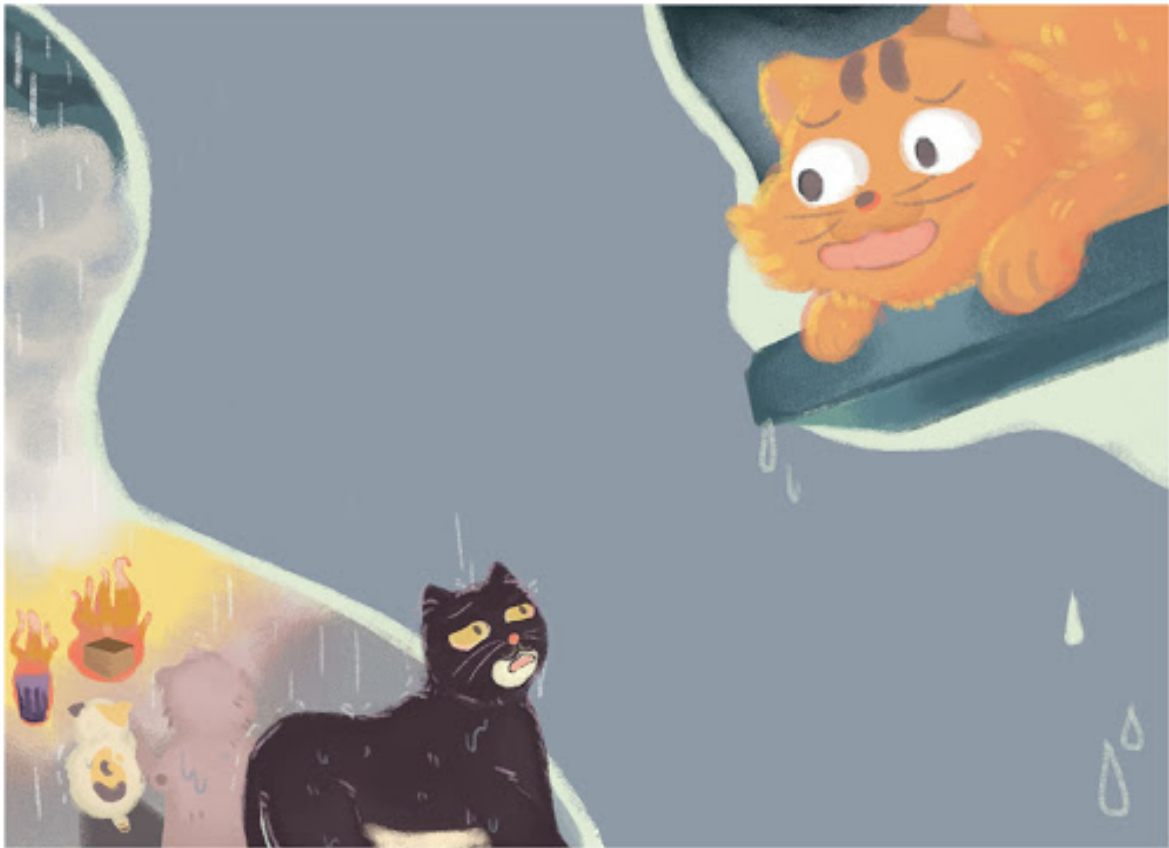

Finally, Poki sees a house.

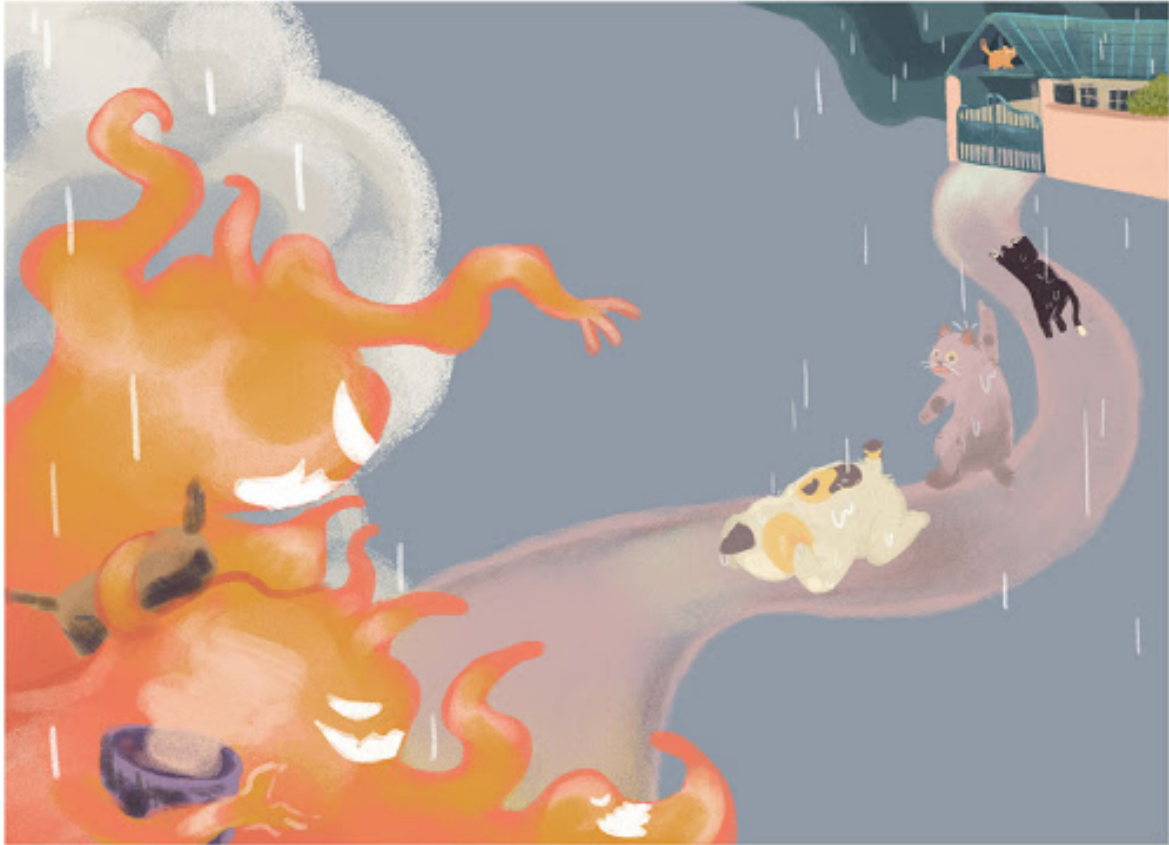

Poki feels lucky to find any shelter. There is a small attic where he can get out of the rain. But he still feels cold.

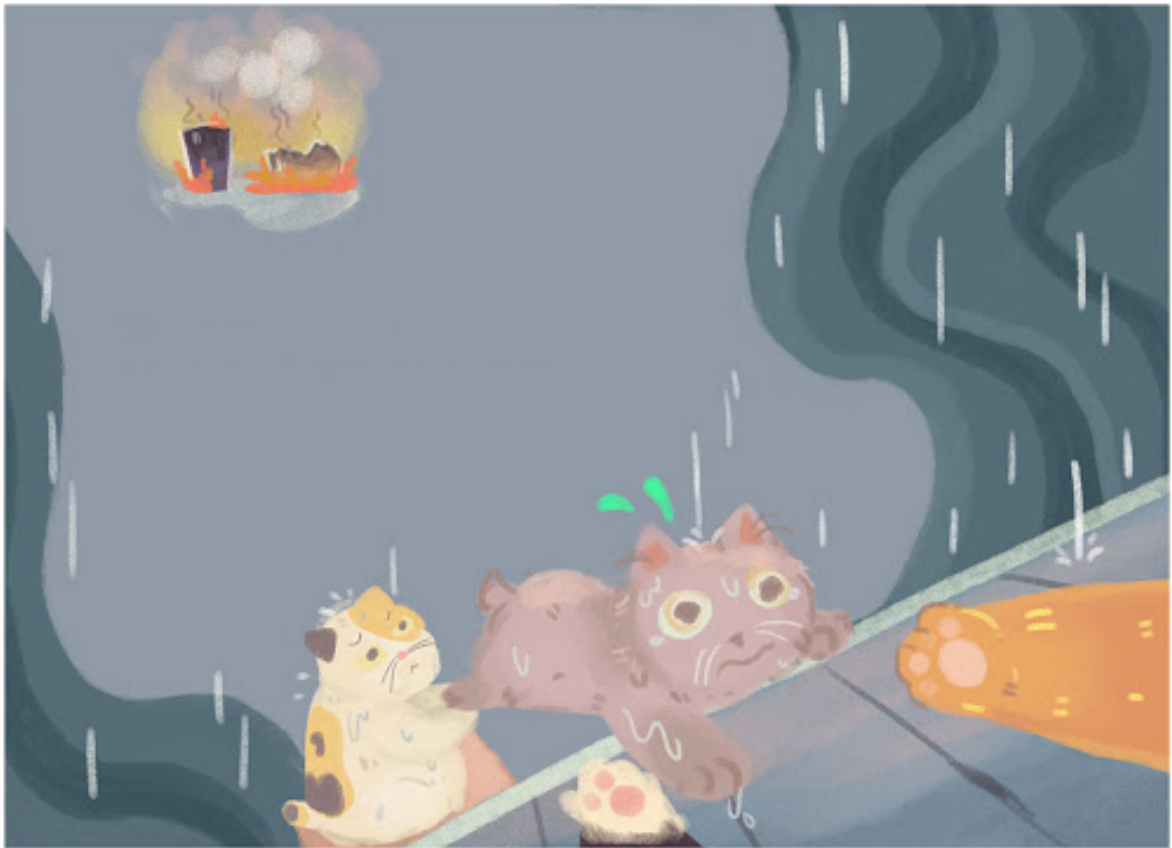

Suddenly Poki is blinded by a white flash.
CLAP!

Lightning strikes nearby. Poki is shocked.
A fire sweeps through the alleyway!

"Meow! Meow! Come here, everyone!" Poki calls out to the other cats.

The cats climb up to Poki's shelter.

They huddle together.

Poki is glad his friends are safe. But now his little shelter feels cramped.

But then Poki curls up next to his friends.
Snuggling together makes him feel warm.
Ahh, Poki falls into a sound sleep.
