Tun, can you bring me a tomato?

Tomato, tomato...

Tun eagerly climbed onto the chair.

Here is your tomato, Mom.

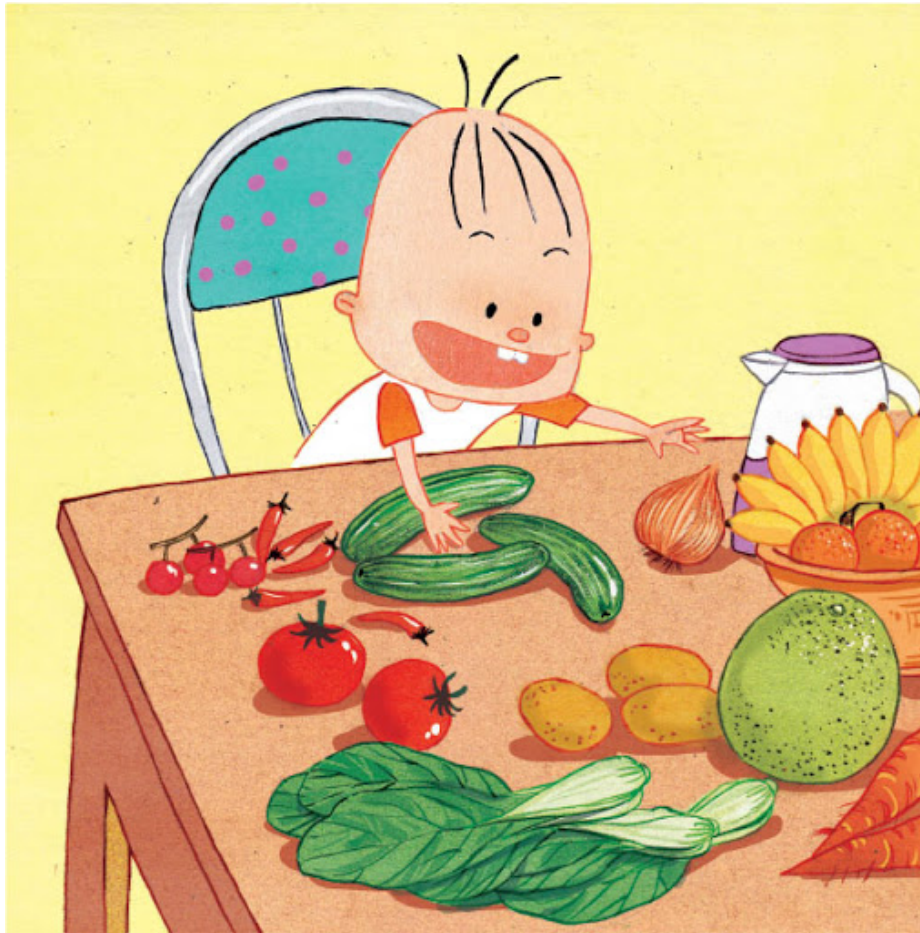

Oh no, this is a green cucumber. A tomato should be red.

Ah, here are red tomatoes!

They are not, either. A tomato should be roundish.

Ah, here it is. A roundish tomato!
Tun looked around and cheered.

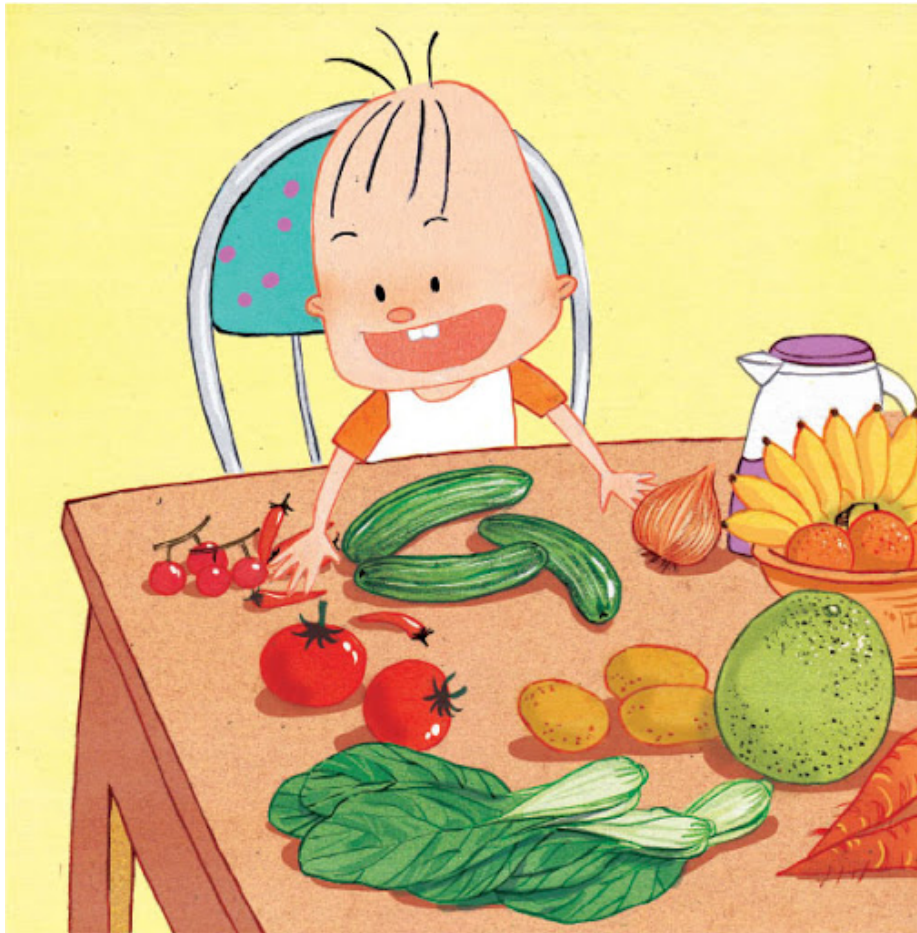

No, it's an onion. A tomato should be roundish and red at the same time, Mom said.

So how about these ones, Mom?

No, these are cherries. They are roundish and red, too, but a tomato is much bigger.

Tun looked around all the vegetables on the kitchen table and found right away a big, red and roundish fruit.

Ah, I found it. A big, red and roundish tomato.
You made it this time. Well done, Tun.
Mom smilingly rubbed Tun's hair gently and praised him.
