

WHO WAS THE REAL SHARK?

Let's  Read

 The Asia Foundation

- Oh, it's so awesome! Let's make a big jump into water! – The kids cheered joyfully.
- I'll be Tip the Shark of the ocean. – Said Tip.

- Look, I can swim out so far! – Tip bragged. But the other kids got all pouty.
- Jeez, there he's gone, leaving us all behind!

- It's OK, let's come play by ourselves. – Bo suggested.

- Let's imagine this is a cool boat.

- A fierce shark is circling around your boat, girls.
- Eekkk... scary! A shark and a "fish" that barks! – Nana screamed.
- They're gonna bite us. – Namie yelled.

- Hihhi...

The cheerful laughter spread so far that it reached where Tip was swimming.

- Eh? But isn't it me who is the Shark? – Tip mumbled.

- Grr grr... Here comes the fiercest shark ever!
Once step out of the boat, you'll be in its throat.

Splish! Splash!

- Here comes the real Shark!

- No way! It's Bo who is our real Shark.

- Why don't both of us become sharks together? – Tip said.

- Here comes the Sharks' double attack! – Bo and Tip screamed eagerly.
- No fear of sharks anymore. We have already had the "woof-woof fish" as our bodyguard now. – Na and Namie giggled.
